The carpet-baggers were never soldiers. We doubt whether one in ten of the present Republican party had anything lurther to do with the and dukes and lords of the empire of war than to make money by it.
Many of them declared their wish that the war should go on long enough to enable them to make their fortunes. And if they did not put on mourning when it closed it was a strong people. mourning when it closed, it was only favor a strong people against a strong because, in keeping with their own government. IT is stated that Eastern capitalists agonally across the Mississippi from Mobile to Helena. The Levee Rallway Company has been construct a narrow-gauge road from Vicksburg to Helena. It is the palpuble purpose of Governor Alcorn to create a city in Mississippi, opposite Helena, whence railway lines are to diverge to Little Rock, St. Louis and Marshall, Texas. The importance of this contemplated emporium of trade in Alcorn's domains will not be lessened by a narrow-gauge road from Memphis to this city of Alcorn. The success of Alcorn's plans renders the Great Sacrifice rallway (from Memphis to Paducah) an unavoidable necessity. From the South four great railway lines, the Mississippi and Tennessee, Memphis and Selma, the Mobile and Helena, and the Vicksburg and Helena roads, all become "feeders" to the Memphis and Paducah road. The stock held by Memphis tax-payers in the Paducan road will surely become most valenriched from the South, has greater offer for the the NEXT TWO WEEKS. The commerce of our city will be developed to an extent never effected by any system of roads herelofore conelved. Iron and coalfields are penetrated, and foreign capitalists will not be slow to discover the measureless advantages of Memphis as a manufacturing emporium. The Couwling Victory. In his speech at St. Louis, on the 17th, Senator Morton said: Our enemies are artfully whispering MARKED DOWN TO ONE-HALF THEIR to us that our mission has been performed, that our duty is done, and that we may rest upon our victorious arms. The mission of the Republican party will not be performed, it it can be said to have a special mission, Chirtsenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments shall be accepted not cally in letter, but in spirit; until it shall be concluded, not for the sake of political expediency, but because all parties agree that they are right and ought to be the fundamental law of B.
